Foreword

This edition of THE ORACLE is presented to the members of the Class of 1943 by its editors in hope that its review of our four years' achievements may serve always to recall the many happy and purposeful days spent in Wakefield High. May the accomplishments and memories of these past four years spur us on in the days ahead to the winning of the war and the salvation of a crushed humanity.

BARBARA DOWER, '43

Acknowledgments

We of the Yearbook Staff express our gratitude to the following, without whose substantial assistance THE ORACLE could never have been published:

Miss Bernice L. Caswell, our guide and adviser, whose labor was unfailingly productive; Miss M. Alice Ryan—we shall always remember her efficient work and the willing effort of her typists; Mr. Paul W. Mortimer of the Item Press, who advised us on technical matters; finally, the Business Staff, whose work made our financial status secure.

And above all, our staff artists deserve mention: notably Priscilla Falls, who originated the cover design, Alexander Klapes, and Nancy Fitz. Co-operating closely with them on the photographic arrangement were Mary Martino, Barbara Dower, and Joseph Calkins.

STUART GRANDFIELD, '43

Our Motto

Try, Trust, and Triumph is our class motto. Has anyone taken the time to think seriously about the motto which should be our banner in years to come? The meaning is clear: If we persist in trying for success, and also trust in God and His justice, we shall eventually triumph over our obstacles.

The three T's should be evident in everything we try to accomplish. In order to attain success, however, we must always include all three of them. To Triumph, we certainly must have Try as well as Trust. In these days of war and greed, the need for Triumph is desperate. We, the Class of 1943, shall accept the challenge of the world and Try, Trust, and Triumph!

BARBARA DOWER, '43

We Prepare Today to Rebuild Tomorrow

We high school graduates have a tremendous task and an important responsibility before us: to secure the fulfillment of a safe and prosperous post-war world. Although the blame for its present condition cannot be ascribed to us, the future lies squarely upon our shoulders. We must begin now to consider the many post-war plans, and when we have reached a decision as to the most beneficial and practical, we must take an active part in its support. Some contend that hasty, thoughtless action is better than no action; carefully considered action is doubtless better than either. The inert mind will not have a place in tomorrow's world. Whatever our future, we should realize the necessity that We Prepare Today to Rebuild Tomorrow. Our success or failure in this is an accurate measure of the success or failure of our high school education.

STUART GRANDFIELD, '43

Class Officers

HENRY O'NEILL
Class President

"Bump"

Undecided

Class President (4); Home Room President (3, 4); Football (4); Basketball (1, 2, 3); Captain, Basketball (4); Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4).

All who know "Bump" have found him sincere and unassuming. The position of class president was won by him entirely through his own efforts and hard work. He came to us from the Lincoln School, and as early as his freshman year, showed amazing ability in basketball. He has mastered baseball and football equally well; and as a pitcher in his junior year, he had an impressive record. "Bump's" aggressive spirit will, we are sure, carry him to success in the world.

STUART DAVIS GRANDFIELD

"Stu," our conscientious vice president, is an extremely popular and respected member of the Class of 1943. He has attained distinction not only by his keen wit and amicable manner, but by his readiness to lend his time and intelligence to school activities. "Stu" is also well known because of his enviable scholastic record. He excels in science, and we know that he will continue his career with great success at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Whenever there is a group of people laughing or playing golf, you may be sure to find "Joe" in the midst of it. His sense of humor and pleasant personality have made him one of the most popular boys in the class with both teachers and students. With you in their ranks, "Joe," we feel sure the Marines will never let us down.

RICHARD HALLORAN
Class Treasurer

"Dick"

United States Navy

Golf Team (3, 4); President of Student Council (4); Senior Play (4); Hi-Y Club (3); Class History Committee (4); Class Treasurer (4).

From St. Joseph's School came "Dick" Halloran, an extremely prominent member of the class. He is a willing participant in all school affairs and a leading humorist. As Class Treasurer and President of the Student Council, "Dick" has served us well for the past year. In the senior play, he thrilled the audience with his great love scenes. With his genial personality and extensive store of jokes, "Dick" should fare well in the United States Navy.

FRANK ANGELINI

"Frankie"

Golf Team (2, 3, 4); Class Color Committee (3);
Senior Play Publicity Committee (4); Yearbook
Staff (4).

"Frankie," a graduate of the Montrose School, is one of our most amiable boys. An enthusiastic golfer, he has played for three years on the golf team and has served on many committees where his assistance was invaluable. Wakefield High will be a sadder place with the going of Frankie's personality and wit, but memories of him will remain with us for years to come.

WILLIAM ANGELINI

"Elo"

Army of the United States

Track (3); Golf (2, 3).

Handsome "Elo" arrived four years ago from the Franklin School. He has acquired many new friends, the majority of which are feminine! He is noticeable in the corridors because of his towering height and wavy, black hair. As a golfer he excels—sometimes. We shall miss him when he leaves for the army. The Class of 1943 wishes him the best of luck and happiness.

WARREN BRYDON BAKER

"Bryde"

United States Navy

Tennis (1, 2); Band (1, 2, 3); Orchestra (1, 2, 3);
Hi-Y Club (3, 4); Treasurer, Hi-Y Club (4);
Senior Play Committee (4); Lookout (2, 3).

The High School's gain was the Greenwood school's loss, when Brydon Baker arrived here. However, many girls were disappointed when he concentrated his attentions upon a privileged few. Seriously, Brydon will be training in the Navy when this is printed, and he has our hearty best wishes for rapid advancement.

RICHARD BAKER

"Dick"

United States Navy

Hi-Y Club (1, 2, 3); Senior Play Cast (4); Band
(1, 2, 3); Senior Party Committee (4).

"Dick" certainly proves the maxim, "Anything for a laugh." He stands head and shoulders above any gag man in the class. He plans to be a salesman after the war; and if he can sell goods as well as he has sold himself, he should be very successful.

LILLIAN BARRETT

WILLIAM BAYRD

"Parson"

United States Navy

Band (1, 2, 3, 4); Leader (4).

"Parson" came to Wakefield High from the Montrose School. He is a man of many talents. We all admire his baton twirling in his super Indian regalia as he leads the Wakefield High School Band. He is not only an able drum-major, but an excellent drummer as well. "Bill" also collects stamps and does expert novelty wood working.

KARL EDMUND BECKER

Karl

U. S. Navy

Football (4); Track (2, 3, 4); Band (2, 3, 4); Senior Play Stage Crew (4).

"Karl" is the unobtrusive little fellow you've noticed around with a quick wit and a mischievous smile. This athletic Greenwood lad is known and liked by everyone. With the exception of stamp collecting, Karl finds little time for hobbies, since he is around town in the company of several of his Greenwood friends. Wakefield High School wishes you luck in your future career in the service, Karl.

JOHN H. BEEBE

John

Bowdoin College

Basketball (1); Baseball (2); Lookout Staff (4); Senior Play Property Committee (4); Yearbook Staff (4); Junior Literary Reviewer (4).

The Warren School may feel proud for contributing John's brilliant mind and friendly charm to the class of '43. John's talent for writing prose and poetry makes him well suited for a journalistic career, and we expect to see his by-line in some metropolitan daily, or his name in a best seller list any day now. Good luck, John!

JOHN BENEDETTO

Honor Pupil

"Little Ben"

United States Army Air Corps

Class Motto Committee (3); Yearbook Staff (4).

A graduate of the Woodville School, "Ben" is one of our intellectual students. This fact, however, has not hindered his popularity with his classmates. He hopes to attend college, specializing either in chemical engineering, or perhaps in the business field. However, for the present, he intends to enlist in the United States Army Air Corps. Happy landings, John!

WILLIAM DENTON BEZANSON

"Bill"

Royal Canadian Air Force

Class Motto Committee (3).

"Bill" is an expert on bees and their living conditions, as he has worked at an apiary. Occasionally he gets in trouble with the honey, and getting stung is becoming a habit. His wonderful sense of humor makes him one of the most popular fellows in the class.

DORIS P. BISHOP

"Dot"

Office Worker

Bowling (1, 2, 3); Tennis (3); Senior Play Make-up Committee (4).

"Dot" came to us from the Hurd School, bringing with her a reputation of reticence and efficiency. A likable, well-mannered blonde she should prove an asset to any business; and she has our best wishes in her future work.

ROBERT BROCKBANK

"Bob"

Army of the United States

Having completed his elementary education at the Lincoln School, "Bob" readily made himself at home at Wakefield High School. He was one of the first members of our class to be called to the colors before the completion of his senior year. "Bob" may not make a "tough sarge," but we all know he will be a competent one.

"Brownie" is known throughout the school for his energy, his even disposition, and his wonderful sense of humor. For four years he has devoted much of his time to high school activities, crowning this work with his performance in the role of a football player in the Senior Play. He deserves all of his popularity, for he has few equals in friendliness. "Brownie" intends to enter the field of chemical engineering after he has done his part in the service.

"Joe," that lanky lad, came to us from Saint Joseph's School. His quiet but appealing manner attracts many classmates. We all hope that he will enjoy army life. Good luck, "Joe."

GEORGE L. BUXTON

"Buck"

Army of the United States

Basketball (1, 2, 3, 4); Football (1); Interclass Basketball (4); Baseball (4).

George was a small but lively package from a small school. This background did not bother him in the least, however, for he was one of our hoop squad's big guns his last year, and was also active in football and baseball. We hope he is as popular in the Army as he was here, for his future is in the hands of Uncle Sam.

JOSEPH DANIEL CALKINS

"Joe"

United States Navy

Lunch Counter (4); Junior Literary Reviewer (4); Yearbook Staff (4).

"Joe" has been a diligent and earnest student throughout his four years of high school. His reserved personality and intelligence will aid him a great deal in the future. If he continues his splendid work, we know that he will attain his ambition. We wish him the best of luck and success.

Joan, that Greenwood lass, has tried hard to instill some school spirit into the cheering section of the crowds for the past two years. She will surely show Wakefield High at its best when she goes to Colby Junior College. Best wishes, Joan.

Before coming to high school, Sammy studied at the Lynnfield Grammar School. Quiet, yet not diffident, he has made many friends during his four years at Wakefield High. We hope that he will be as successful in the Army as he was at school.

RONALD BELANGER

"Bell"

Aviation

Senior Play Stage Crew (4).

"Bell" is a serious member of the class, whose really friendly attitude is shaded by his quiet mood. Despite this bashfulness, "Bell" has made a host of friends. During his high school days, he produced some fine model airplanes, and this experience should be of great help to him in his plans for a career in aviation.

"Stan" ascended to Wakefield High School from the Warren, bringing with him his natural bent for music and mathematics. STANLEY HARVEY

"Stan" is another of the boys from South Lynnfield. His enviable disposition is known to all of his associates. He has a friendly smile and will always attract many friends. We hope your desire to serve Uncle Sam will help to shorten the war, "Stan."

It was our gain and Lynnfield's loss when "Les" came to Wakefield High. His pleasing personality and infectious laugh attracted much favorable attention. However sorry we are that he didn't finish his senior year, we know the Navy will benefit by his services.

The Lookout continued to amuse and delight students and faculty members. It carried the usual complement of news, editorials, and features, and also a roto-gravure insert. All of this material was prepared out of class. In order to distribute the work of editing, the entire editorial staff was rotated for each issue. This system gave each editor an equal amount of labor. Ten issues were published—approximately one every three weeks.

The Lookout is indebted to its editors, staff, and typists for the painstaking work, cooperation, and time that have made the Lookout successful. The efficient supervision of Miss Allman has been invaluable in producing the paper.

The Student Council came into existence a few years ago, and since then has proved a valuable addition to the school. Its members, chosen from the four classes, have met and striven for the solving of school problems.

Its accomplishments are not well-known, since it has had no time for talking about itself; in fact, it has often been criticised because of its withdrawal into the background. The Student Council published the 1943 Manual, and with the profit of the dance held this year, started a scholarship fund. It earnestly hopes that its work will be continued by all the Student Councils to come.

The Band: 1942-1943

With a war waging, and many patriotic events occurring, the people of the community naturally turn to the high school band to lead them at these gatherings. The players have been only too glad to accept and do their bit toward the war effort.

This year, the band played at the basketball games in addition to the football games, the annual May Concert, and the many parades and public affairs.

Their snappy red sweaters, sailor hats, and white trousers—plus their fine playing—have won favorable comment for both the appearance and the music of the group.

Mr. Fanck deserves much credit for the many rehearsals at which he has worked long and strenuously in order to present a band that would be a credit to all.

The players would also like to thank Captain Brockbank, Lieutenant MacKenna, and Mr. Leonard Bayrd, for their assistance in the group's marching.

Girls' Glee Club: 1942-1943

The Girls' Glee Club of the Wakefield High School, under the able direction of our new supervisor, Mrs. King, has made several appearances this season.

The club started the school year by meeting every Monday afternoon and on alternating Wednesdays, with the Boys' Glee Club. However, as the year progressed, many girls were unable to attend the after-school meetings because of employment. As a result, the official meeting day was changed to Wednesday, the sixth period.

The Glee Club's first performance was given for the Daughters of the American Revolution and was held at the Hartshorne House. The entire program was sung a capella. Following this concert, the combined Glee Clubs then gave their annual Christmas concert at the regular Christmas Assembly. Upon the acceptance of an invitation from the Kosmos Club, again the harmonious voices of the girls were blended in song. An added attraction at this concert was a flute solo, played by Hazel Ormsby. Their final performance of the season was given at the Spring Concert, which took place on May 13, 1943.

The untiring efforts and patience of Mrs. King have been appreciated by the members, and we shall all miss those "Happy Glee Club Days."

Boys' Glee Club: 1942-1943

The Boys' Glee Club is one of our most admirable organizations. Because many boys have been working this year and have been unable to attend rehearsals, the club is somewhat smaller than usual. The members of the group, nevertheless, have done excellent work under the capable supervision of Mr. Arthur Fulton, faculty adviser. Some of the activities the club has participated in this year include the Christmas Assembly and the May concert. Wakefield High School is indeed proud of this musical organization.

Under the helpful and efficient guidance of the faculty sponsor, Miss Helen F. Gilmore, the Inter Nos Club celebrated its fifteenth anniversary this year. Varied and interesting programs were enjoyed. During the season, the club participated not only in its usual civic activities, but also in many patriotic services as well. Notable among these were the Red Cross work sponsored by the club, and a successful Red Cross First Aid Course.

The Club's purpose, "To create school spirit and intellectually broaden the vision of each girl in Wakefield High School," was successfully carried out, and an entertaining and worthwhile season enjoyed.

We know that these members will pass on their fine standard to succeeding members under the expert instruction of our librarian, Miss Sheldon.

The Senior Play

December 11 and 12, 1942, marked an additional success to the long list already accumulated by the class of 1943. "Ever Since Eve," a prize-winning comedy in three acts by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clements, was enthusiastically received by two record-breaking audiences, and Johnny Clover and associates were ably portrayed by two versatile casts.

Deserving of much credit for her capable direction is Mrs. Donald White, royally aided by the Senior Play Committee.

Football: 1942

Even though the victories of the past season were few, the team work and the capable guidance of Coach Healey were, as usual, splendid.

Because of the lack of older and more experienced boys, Coach Healey very cleverly broke in juniors to take the positions. Our hats go off to Harland Ratcliffe, John Sparkes, Guido Tine, Walter Collins and Malcolm Russell for their fine work in filling their new positions so well.

Thus, under these difficulties, Wakefield met her first foe courageously, but was defeated by the heavy team of Malden, 13-0. The next opponent was Swampscott, who easily took Wakefield, 13-0. The teams appeared to be more difficult as Wakefield lost to Woburn, 14-0. However, our boys renewed their vitality and strength, and, in their next game, they earned their first victory of 7-6 against Winthrop. Wakefield then met a disastrous fate again and lost to Watertown, 13-0. The jinx of Melrose was not broken, and our boys suffered another defeat from the unbeatable team of Melrose, 19-0. But in the next encounter Wakefield fought hard and tied Peabody, 6-6. Full of hope and eagerness after the previous tie, Wakefield stepped forth to take Reading, 6-2. The last game of the season was a gripping and tightfast battle. Our team held Saugus until the last few minutes of the game, when Saugus walked off with a victory of 7-0.

Our congratulations go to Joseph Czarnota, who ran down the field like a whirlwind and also like a veteran of the game. Praise is also due to Valentino Rufo for his sparkling defense work, to John Canavan for his capable management of his backfield position, to John Smith for his courageous and clever rushes, and also to Henry O'Neill, George Landrigan, Warren Gerry, and Mario Rosati for their fine work in the line. A bouquet of roses goes to John Manning, who was unable to play on account of a broken knee. Last but not least, congratulations to Frank Knapp, our capable manager, who was always on the spot when needed.

Next year the game will be put into the capable hands of our younger players, such as Jimmy Vella, a promising backfielder; Armando Roberto, Fernando Barsanti, Malcolm Russell, Guido Tine, and John Sparkes. Give the game all you've got, boys, for you certainly have the essential qualities of a good team. With the splendid and capable assistance of Coach Healey, you will be a success.

Boys' Basketball Team: 1942-1943

Despite their fighting spirit and eagerness to win, the members of the basketball team did not enjoy a good season, winning five games while dropping seven. The boys had a right to be discouraged from the start of the campaign when it was learned that Jack Manning, star center, would be lost for the entire season because of a knee injury. In spite of this, the hoopsters proved to be formidable foes for any of their opponents.

The outstanding player was the versatile captain and high scorer, Henry O'Neill, whose playing ability sparked the squad to its victories. Other prominent basketball players were Robert Bates, aggressive forward; George Buxton, diminutive sharp-shooter; John Smith, capable guard; and last but not least, "Ken" Conger, the tall, dependable center. "Busty" Giuliano, "Zip" Zagaja, and Frank Bartnick also shone as excellent reserves.

Boys' Hockey Team: 1942-1943

Under the capable guidance of Coach Muse, the Wakefield High School Hockey Team won second place in the Eastern Massachusetts League. Starting off with vigor, Wakefield was tied with Hudson in the first and best game of the season. Victories over Somerville, Dedham, and Malden, and a tie with Lexington were followed by the second best game of the season when the team won over Brookline. Then came defeat with Natick, two more victories with Lexington and Malden, and a final loss to Brookline. Wakefield was tied for first place until the last game of the season, when it lost. Congratulations go to these outstanding players of the first team: Wendell Vidito, Captain, goal; Burton Strong, left defense; Harland Ratcliffe, right defense; Joseph Czarnota, center; Joseph LeFave, right wing, and John Inglis, left wing, and to all the substitutes for their untiring work.

GOLF TEAM

Golf Team: 1942

The golf team has had a very successful season, as is shown by its marvelous record and handsome trophies. The boys were undefeated, and only nine points were scored against them. After winning the Middlesex League and the Sagamore Cup, they tried for the State Championship, but unfortunately they lost. The members of the team are very proud of this record, especially of their captain, John Lan, and their coach, Mr. Butler. Lan proved his golfing ability by winning the Sagamore Cup with the wonderful score of seventy-seven. Joseph Sousa, acting as manager, helped the team very much. The others—Frang Angelini, William Angelini, “Tony” Luciano, John Cusato, and “Dick” Halloran—did so well that the team moved along like a machine. Because of the generosity of Mr. Richard Luff, the team was allowed to use the Sagamore Golf Course as their home course. We can hope only that future teams will have as successful a season as this year’s team has had.

Track: 1942-1943

The track team was one of the first to suffer the impacts of the war. Mr. Colucci, the coach, organized the team, but just prior to the first meet, was called into the service, and the track team was left stranded. The boys wanted to carry on, and after some time Mr. Heavens took over.

Around a few veterans, Mr. Colucci had built up a large number of boys, inexperienced but eager to compete. On April 6 the usual interclass meet was run, the Seniors winning by a large score. The Seniors, of course, had the largest number of veterans, and upon these veterans the team had to depend.

The first meet against an outside opponent was with Medford, who came to Wakefield to run. The boys did as well as they could, but the Medford team of veterans was too much, and Medford gained a fairly easy victory.

The rest of the schedule was run as follows: Lexington, Beverly, Everett, and Melrose. The Beverly meet was the only meet the Wakefield team won. However, all the meets were close.

Before he left, Mr. Colucci had appointed three boys who acted as captains, and helped Mr. Colucci in the organization of his boys. The three boys were Larry Collins, Joseph Dinan, both of the class of 1942, and John McElroy, of the class of 1943. These boys did an exceedingly fine job, but were hampered in that their time, as was the case of the other older boys, was divided between outside afternoon jobs and the track team.

The boys who contributed the highest number of points to the team were Larry Collins in the dashes, Rosati in the shot put, McElroy and Dinan in the middle and long-distance runs, and Conger in the quarter and high jump.

Baseball: 1942

Wakefield High School Baseball Team had a very successful season in 1942 with six wins and four losses. The most spectacular game was Everett 9—Wakefield 8.

John Inglis, one of the Wakefield High School's best catchers, was captain of this year's team. Bud Vidito was an efficient third baseman, Dick Mills was on first base, and Bob Kelly on second. Shorty Canavan played right field. John McMahon and Hank O'Neill did the pitching which won so many games. Coach Rood had reason to feel proud of his youthful players, who profited by his expert teaching.

Girls' Field Hockey: 1942-1943

Because of the small group of girls participating in field hockey this year, only one team was organized. Although our girls played well in their one game, they lost by a small margin to the victorious Stoneham team. Girls from the freshman to senior classes were chosen to represent Wakefield. Praise is due to Miss Nichols, the faculty coach, for her effective training.

The squad consisted of the following fourteen girls: C. Cook, L. Carpenter, lw; E. Fitt, li; A. DiSantis, f; B. Miles, R. Wells, ri; K. Allen, rw; C. Whitney, lh; J. Fowler, ch; A. Albani, L. Bunker, rh; A. Lenner, lf; M. Garbenis, rf; H. Melanson, g.

Girls' Basketball: 1942-1943

From the gym on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, one could usually hear the sound of bouncing balls, the raised voices of excited basketball enthusiasts, and the shrill whistle of our popular instructor, Miss Nichols. Despite the fact that many girls were in war work, the seniors were fairly well represented. Because of the difficulty of transportation, however, out-of-town games could not very easily be arranged; consequently, the girls concentrated on the annual inter-class games.

Both enjoyment and healthful exercise were gained by the participants. Among the game lovers were Anna DeSantis, Rosina Roberto, Claire Fotino, Carolyn Cook, Hazel Ormsby, Dorothy Jillet, Evelyn Leone, and Mary Martino.

Soliloquy on a Dentist

(With sincere apologies to William Shakespeare)

To pull or not to pull: that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The pangs and anguish of an aching tooth,
Or to drop arms against a sea of dentists,
And by relenting end pain. To pull: to sleep;
No more; and by a sleep to say we end
The tooth-ache, and the thousand natural throes
That teeth are heir to, 'tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wished. To pull, to sleep;
To sleep: perchance to err: aye, there's the rub;
For in that sleep of gas what flaws may come,
When we have shuffled off this mental toil,
Must give us pause: there's the respect
That makes calamity of so long life;
For who would bear the pulls and tugs of Doc,
The extortioner's wrong, the cruel man's contumely,
The pangs of aching teeth, the doc's delay,
The insolence of office, and the spurns
That patient merit of the unworthy takes,
When he himself might his quietus make
With a mere string? Who would fardels bear,
To groan and scream under a dentist's knife,
But that the dread of post extraction harm
The undiscover'd error from whose end
No sufferer emends, incites the ire—
And makes us rather bear those ills we have
Than fly to dentists that we know not of?
Thus dentists do make cowards of us all,
And thus the fearful hue of extrication
Is sicklied o'er with the pale cast of thought,
And enterprises of great strength and genius
With this attempt their currents turn awry
And lose the tooth in question. Look you now!
The wrong bicuspid!

Rubber

I gaze from my window with longing
At the highway stretching there,
I think of the fun of the old days
When my tires weren't so rare.

I yearn to go climbing the mountains,
And I crave the ocean's foam.
I hear that sweet call of the Southland,
But my tires keep me home.

You may have your high boots and your saddles,
And your ships that sail the seas,
Your planes and your trains and your bicycles,
Just give four new tires to me!

Class Prophecy

Wakefield, Massachusetts
June 1953

Dear John:

The last time you wrote, you asked me to tell you about the reunion of the class. Quite a few of the fellows and gals returned as Mr. and Mrs. I guess we got lost in the rush. Several of the boys have climbed to high altitudes in local chain stores; Dick Emery is now the A. & P. supervisor and David Ciccirella is manager of the First National in Somerville. Burton Strong is the hockey coach of the Inter-chain-store-league. Little Joseph McDonald is getting rich as an entertainer at the "Beachcomber," which is being run by Les Jay and John McElroy. Karl Becker is also employed in the same enterprise as a detective. Harry Lanzillo is making a great success of Lanzillo, Lanzillo, Lanzillo & Co., an international dairy chain.

Helen Johnson has just returned from a world tour. She has completed research for her new book, "How to Bring up Any Man." Betty Thying and Hazel Ormsby returned from Broadway where they were both very successful. Betty played in "I Am a Little Gopher." Hazel made her debut in "To Study or to Eat." Norma Thistle is the first woman to be Manager for Flood's, and Lillian Barrett is working at Cummings. Pearl Messenger, Ruth Barry and Margery Morgan are all private secretaries.

Lester Preston has been elected to head the Lynnfield Park Department. As a sideline he is running entertainments in the same town. Emil Pawlowski is modeling men's fashions for "Esquire," while "Dutch" Smith and Paul Spang try to think up jokes for the same publication. Betty Roderick is modeling clothes, while Dot Bunker is cooling off modeling bathing suits. I always did want to know who "borrowed" that blueprint of her from the Lab! Helen Collins has given up her nursing to settle down with one of her many good-looking cousins. By the way, her life-long friend, Connie Ricca, is the secretary and wife of a Washington executive. "Dolly" DelRossi has long ago given up work and settled down to bring up her two little girls. Quiet little Priscilla Falls is going to exhibit her works of art next week. Wish I could afford to buy one of her sketches. Jean Davis is happily married in Middlebury, Vt., and Mollie Stevens is still trying to get a date with Bob Hope, but since he's always on the road to somewhere, she hasn't been able to get him.

Joe Calkins is teaching at Annapolis, and the girls are still chasing him. Some fun if you ask me! Busty Giuliano is keeping up the family trade by opening a new salon in Boston. Charlie Piczano is head chemist for Lever Brothers. Charles Pettipost is still in Hollywood where he is trying to fill Caesar Romero's place. Only time will tell whether the girls fall for his technique. Billy Bayrd married a cute little majorette, and the two are now drum-majoring all over the U. S. A. The "Theresa A. D'Allesandro Detective Agency" is working on the case of finding the person who killed that teacher. Theresa E. D'Allesandro is her able assistant. Phyllis Westover has joined the ranks of married women, and "Dete" Hickey is bringing up a family of twins who are being taught to play the piano by Doris Ryan.

"Red" Kelley has made his wink professional by teaching all the actors his technique. At night he works as the bouncer at the "Brown Derby." "Bump" O'Neill is still being bumped around the court in pro-basketball. Richard Wheeler is head photographer for Warner Brothers.

Betty Williams has a queer way of swooping down into our back yard in that plane of hers.

Have you read Mary Fayle's "Lovewise Column"? It's a new feature in the Item.

A Song of the Rain

Deafeningly the rain fell,
 drenching all thought, quenching all sound.
What is it Rain, what is it that you would tell?
 How mightily you strive! Could it be ambition?
 How loudly you roar! Is it petition?
Oh the beat and the pulse of you vesting me with new power, new strength, new desire!
Oh that swelling crest of crashing chords quickening
 the heart, coursing the veins with fire!
Oh the torment and the anguish of you as wrestling wildly with the wind
 'gainst the window you are flung!
Oh those million voices calling, calling,
 now scarce heard for the noisy din,
 to pain and fear giving tongue!
Tell me, O Rain, is it because of pride that these voices have cried?
 Is it because of ambition
 that they must petition?
Answer, O Rain, answer!
 But the loud roar is now but a murmur,
 The wailing anguish, a whisper—
 and now,
Softly the rain fell,
 bathing the tortured earth in a gentle spray,
 mantling her ragged wounds in a silvery gray, caressing shattered petals carelessly strewn with cooling fingers and a wistful croon.
Oh the gentleness and softness of you,
 and
 then,
 a legato, smooth and flowing,
 a lullaby, tender, glowing—Drowsily the rain fell,
 an incessant drum, drum, drum,
 a drowsy strum, strum, strum,
 gently lulling me,
 tenderly leading me,
 until—
Mistily the rain fell,
 now but a melody softly muted,
 an elusive, promising song,
 a tuneful zephyr with fancies fruited sailing my dream bark along.
This then is your answer, O Rain:
 with kindness and gentleness, allay pain;
 with peaceful security, quell fear;
 with shining dreams, dry the tear.

Class History

Freshman Year

We, the Class of 1943, started our high school career on September 6, 1939, and were the first freshmen in many years to attend Wakefield High School under the one-session plan. Despite the confusion, necessary changes, and many inconveniences, a large percentage of our number was on the Honor Roll each term, and many took part in sports and extra-curricular activities. Several of the girls joined the Inter Nos Club, an organization which presents many interesting programs throughout the year. Nearly thirty members were from our class.

Fifteen of our freshmen wrote for the newly-organized Lookout and they furnished interesting articles, and helped to make it a success.

As freshmen, we added twelve to the Wakefield High School orchestra, which furnished music for assemblies, the Senior play and the "Mikado." Sixteen others were members of the school band and played for football games and such special occasions as Armistice Day and Memorial Day programs.

The Junior Girls' Glee Club sang at the Christmas assembly and, during intermission, at the "Mikado," distinguishing themselves at both performances.

Several of our boys joined the Boys' Glee Club and participated in an exhibition concert given by glee clubs, orchestras and bands. They assisted in producing the "Mikado," in which Donald Hoover gave a screamingly funny portrait of Knee Ban, the Mikado's attendant.

Many of our girls showed much interest in sports, participating in basketball, bowling, archery, badminton, tennis, field hockey, golf, and softball.

Taken as a whole, therefore, our freshman year was one not only of happy times, but also one in which we showed our ability and our willingness to co-operate with the faculty and with the upperclassmen. With this accomplished, we look forward to future years.

Sophomore Year

In September there were 223 who entered the sophomore year.

A new plan, the rotating system, introduced by Mr. Healey, called for a six-period day and four weekly periods for each subject, with the time extension of twelve minutes for each period.

An epidemic of colds increased absences of pupils to 985 during the week of January sixth.

Many students joined Inter Nos and Hi-Y clubs and attended the Junior and Senior events.

This season of football was mostly victorious with George Landrigan, John Cryan and John Smith as the sophomore heroes. Jim Landrigan, an upperclassman and sub-coach, lent his great talent to his brother George, one of our popular sophomore classmates.

Many of our girls participated in such sports as basketball, field hockey, archery, tennis, and bowling and did very good work.

Among the innovations were the driving class directed by Mr. Marche, Home Room program, which leaves the third period on Friday and the sixth period on Wednesday free for extra-curricular activities, and the "strip ticket," which allowed the students to attend all activities at special rates.

With these new activities to improve the conditions of our school for coming years, we left W. H. S. for a ten weeks' vacation.

Junior Year

In September, 221 Juniors returned to school.

Our football season was successful with Co-captains Larry Bartnick and Paul Lazzaro. During this year W. H. S. hockey team entered the Eastern Massachusets League in Brockton's place and won the championship. The basketball team also rated high.

Air raid instructions were given for the first time in school history.

The Lookout, with Ralph Bangs and John Mulcahey as co-editors, and Miss Allman, the faculty adviser, appeared every other Friday and presented new features.

Our golf team was successful and won the Middlesex championship. Our cross country track team, under the supervision of Coach Heavens, was represented in the state meet.

Senior Year

On September 9, 1942, we returned to school to complete our last and most successful year. Early in the fall the class elected Henry O'Neill, president; Stuart Grandfield, vice-president; Joseph Sousa, secretary; and Richard Halloran, treasurer.

The Hi-Y Club, in a reorganization movement, elected James Worthley, president; Stuart Grandfield, vice-president; Joseph Sousa, secretary; and Brydon Baker, treasurer. The club was considerably smaller than the membership of other Hi-Y clubs, but enjoyed a banner year both financially and socially.

The Inter Nos Club elected Nancy Fitz, president; Janice Chadwick, vice-president; Joan Dyke, recording secretary; June Taylor, treasurer; Phyllis Robertson, corresponding secretary; and Marian Casey and Marguerite Hickey, senior directors.

The football team decided to elect captains for each individual game, and under this new plan had a fair season. Both the basketball and hockey teams played under the direction of Coaches Harold Rood and Clarence Meuse. Henry O'Neill was the basketball captain, and Wendell Vidito, the captain of the hockey team. Wakefield finished second in the Eastern Massachusetts League.

The Glee clubs, under the direction of Mrs. Robert King and Mr. Arthur Fulton, have had regular weekly rehearsals, and they showed fine results in the training at the annual spring concert.

The Senior play, as directed by Mrs. Donald White and presented by the Class of 1943, on the evenings of December eleven and twelve, was the most successful of class affairs. The auditorium was filled to capacity both nights.

On March 6, 1943, the Senior Party was held in the auditorium. The hard work done by the committees was amply rewarded by the social and financial success of the dance.

The School Committee made a noble gesture by voting to grant diplomas to any member of the Senior class who entered the service between September, 1942, and the end of the school year June, 1943, provided that the student's work was satisfactory. Several of the senior boys took advantage of the new opportunity, and enlisted.

Nathalie Foss, Helen Jay, and Doris Saunders left shortly after Christmas to train for nurses. Despite the loss of several of its members, the class continued the building of better characters with which to confront the future, and with their motto "Try, Trust, and Triumph" vivid in their minds, the class will depart—each to follow his individual path. Let us all remember that we are the architects of the future, and that we prepare today to rebuild tomorrow.

Class Poem

TO WAKEFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

We leave thy portals, Wakefield High,
To breast life's bulwarks strong.
Equipped in mind, we say farewell
And swiftly march along.
We're thankful to Almighty God
For schools and teachers all.
No matter what the path we've trod,
We'll fight at Freedom's call.

Refrain

To thee we send, O Wakefield High,
Thy praises sweet in song.
We'll raise thy banner to the sky,
Emblem of right, not wrong.

Amidst the tumult and the strife,
Despite this wartime greed,
We'll fight to win. We'll forfeit life
To end the tyrants' creed.
Let Justice light the world anew.
Let Faith, and Hope, and Love
Dispel grim Battle's flaming hue—
Bring peace from God above.

Pardon us for pointing, but we seem to be it when it comes to outfitting the smart young men of New England. We've had many years of experience in satisfying their demands (and believe us they know what they want). Parents approve too, for Kennedy prices are always geared to the times.
